Barcelona is much more

The Barcelona Modernista Pass

is a cultural initiative aimed at all those who wish to delve into Catalan modernism, going beyond its main architectural icons in order to discover some of the lesser-known works of the great architects and other jewels of this artistic movement, both in the city and the regions of Barcelona.

Close to Barcelona you'll find the Cau Ferrat Museum and Maricel Museum, the Lluís Domènech i Montaner House-Museum, Casa Coll i Regàs, the mNACTEC (Science and Technology Museum of Catalonia) and Casa Alegre de Sagrera.

Costa Barcelona Week

La Casa Padró-Riera, a listed building in the Architectural Heritage Inventory of Catalonia, is located in the heart of the town, right next to the main shopping and cultural area. The building we see today is the result of a refurbishment that began in 2016 and L'Hotelet occupies the second storey. The structure, hydraulic tiled flooring and ceilings of the original building have been preserved and are perfectly integrated with the new interior design, offering a combination of Catalan modernist tradition and contemporary style.
